

INSTALLATION TECHNICIAN / INSTALL DEPARTMENT

Stopa Anlagenbau GmbH is a worldwide leader in automated sheet metal and long span goods systems. We partner with other companies to produce completely automated metal manufacturing systems. These systems are sold and installed throughout the world and offer our customers customizable storage solutions for their manufacturing facilities.

Job Description:

Stopa America is located in Farmington, CT and services and installs Stopa systems for the American market. The installation team arrives on a job site throughout the United States. The team preforms layout, erection of steel, installation of a pallet picker crane, followed by full wiring of the system. In the end the installation team hands the job site over to the programming team who program the system to function according to customers wishes.

Essential Functions:

- Travelling Monday-Friday to customer sites to perform the install of the storage system
- Preforming mechanical work related to steel erection and plumbing of a steel system
- Preform electrical work related to running and terminating wires for both low and high voltage
- Troubleshooting the electric systems to diagnose issues

Qualifications:

- Required Qualifications:
 - Related degree from Lincoln technical Institute or similar.
 - Related prior experience working in the manufacturing industry
 - Understanding of electrical concepts

STOPA

- Ability to interpret and understand electrical schematics
- Willingness to travel and valid passport
- Study blueprints, schematics, manuals, or other specifications to determine installation procedures.
- Coordinate efforts with other workers involved in installing or maintaining equipment or components.
- Proficiency in handling general hand tools: Various types of wrenches, screw drivers, pry bar, spud wrench, multi meter
- Proficiency in handling specialty tools: Hammer drill, Impact, hand drill, plum bobs, mag drill, angle grinder, come-a-long, chain fall, torque wrench, laser (line level)
- Preferred Qualifications:
 - Familiarity with PLC electrical functions
 - Experience with automated machinery and electrical control circuits
 - Moderate fluency in technical German

Benefits:

- Health, Dental, Vision Insurance
- Competitive salary and performance-based incentives.
- Eligible for a company vehicle (based on need and length of time with STOPA)
- Retirement savings plan (401K) with company match
- Paid time off and holidays
- Opportunity to travel while keeping all airline, hotel, and car points
- Opportunity for occasional international travel for work and training
- Growth opportunities within the company
- Frequent opportunity for overtime pay
- Per diem travel compensation for personal expenses.

Interest? Contact details.

If you have any questions, please contact: careers@stopa.us www.stopa.com.

STOPA America, 21 Bigwood Ln, Burlington, CT 06013 / Inc Phone: (860)-675-5172

Please apply online. We look forward to receiving your application/CV.

Apply now

STOPA